

HALCYON AND LIBER LIMITED shall continue to identify with the needs and aspirations of her host communities and also our clients' host communities in the execution of its operation.

We are of the view that it shall not operate in isolation and therefore shall liaise with our clients' host communities, relevant government departments and others in order to ensure a safe and peaceful working atmosphere.

We shall also ensure the building and sustenance of solid harmonious relationship with clients and communities and shall exhaust every known peaceful strategy to resolve conflict in case of any disagreement.

Signed for and on behalf of the Management.